JIMMY HEAVIN IN HIS RED
DEVIL SPECIAL WINS RACE

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Thursday Night, July 18.—(By Special Correspondent)—Amid the deafening cheers of the thousands who lined the Speedway, Jimmy Heavin, Herald Carrier boy, superbly driving his Red Devil "Nash" Special, won fame and riches as he dashed home the winner in Greencastle's first annual pushmobile classic this evening.

In winning the classic the young driver won not only fame and honor but awards as follows:
Two dollars in cash.
One Waterman Fountain pen.
To the second place winner goes:
One dollar and a half cash.
One Pocket knife.
Third place went to Bernard Foulkerson, in a Red Crown Special. His winnings are:
One dollar cash.
One Flash Light.

The Weather—Fine, thanks.

They are telling this one on a Greencastle man, who's wife gave him a patent cigar lighter last Christmas. The other day he picked it up and, when it lighted the first time he tried, he threw it away with the declaration that the "durn thing was out of order."

Wheat keeps jumping every day
Price is going up they say
But farmer's smile may end in frown
For things that go up come down.

Its beginning to look like it is just as easy for a bank bandit to get out of prison as it is for a convicted bank official.

It looks like Governor Leslie has developed a bent for pardoning bank bandits.

Governor Leslie, so I have been told
Issued Pardons to bank bandits bold
Well, a man asked me to
So what else could I do?
Said he, when the bankers did scold.

It looks like it is going to be a problem to keep the bank bandit in prison after they are arrested and sentenced to serve terms.

HE'S MINE FOREVER

I just had a letter from an old pal,
Which was closed as follows: "Yours

FLAMES DAMAGE AN ESSEX CAR

An Essex coach owned by the L. & H. Chevrolet Sales Company was gutted by flames, north of the Big Four railroad arch, on State Road 43, about 5:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The car was set afire by back-firing as mechanics attempted to start it.

The entire interior of the auto was burned. All the upholstery and the top were destroyed. Efforts of the mechanics to put out the flames were unavailing.

City firemen were called and used chemicals to put out the remnants of the fire. The framework and tires of the machine were not damaged.

DRAW BAR DROPS ON FAST

TWO RAILROADS—WRECKER
CLEARS TRACK EARLY TODAY

Traffic on the Pennsylvania and Monon railroads was delayed several hours early today when a draw-bar on a fast through Pennsylvania freight train dropped to the tracks at Limedale, derailling three merchandise cars which in turn forced two Monon stone cars on a siding off the rails. The accident occurred at the intersection of the two tracks about 2:40 o'clock this morning and it was not until 7 o'clock that the main tracks of both roads were cleared. No one was hurt in the accident.

It was said the accident occurred when a draw-bar key loosened and allowed a draw-bar on the fast through Pennsylvania freight train to drop to the ties. Three of the merchandise cars in the train were derailed and one of the cars thrown over against the Monon stone cars sitting on a switch. Two of the crushed stone cars were forced off the rails. The scene was one of confusion for several hours as merchandise and splintered cars were strewn on the intersection of the two railroads at Limedale. A wrecker was called and rapidly cleared the tracks and traffic was resumed on the main lines of both roads early today.

Railroad officials of the Pennsylvania at Limedale had not estimated the damage early today. The wrecker was still working late in the morning clearing up debris of the accident.

Same Type of Equipment As That At Crawfordsville To Be Installed In Amusement House Here

Installation of "Talkies" will be started at once at the Granada Theatre it was announced today by Walter Bidwell, manager of the Vonderschmitt Amusement Enterprises in Greencastle. The decision to equip the Granada Theatre, with "talkies", instead of the Vonderschmitt theatre was made after a very careful survey of the two houses. Each house was thoroughly tested for sound effects and the acoustics were found to be excellent in the Granada building which was originally built for stage shows.

The make of the machine to be installed is the DeForrest and will be identical with the one installed in the Strand Theatre at Crawfordsville, which is owned by the Vonderschmitt Enterprises. Splendid results are being obtained at the Strand Theatre and the tone equals any of the talkies in the state.

In an interview with a Herald reporter, C. H. Arnold, manager of the Vonderschmitt Enterprises in Crawfordsville, stated they were well pleased with the new talkies.

Any talking pictures may be used on the DeForrest except the movie tone pictures. At the local theatre, the Vitaphone pictures will be shown as a recent contract with the First National Vitaphone Company calls for their latest all-talkies to be booked after August 1.

The machine will be wired to show movietone pictures and the equipment for them may thus be installed at any time. In the movie-tone pictures the sound is recorded on the film while the Vitaphone talks the sound is recorded on a disk, which resembles a Victrola record and which is timed in perfect accordance with the picture.

Two men are required to run the talking pictures as there are constant changes from one machine to the other.

The sound is produced by a large machine which resembles a radio apparatus, which is installed in the booth, and the wires carrying the sound to the stage. The volume of sound can be adjusted according to the size of the audience. A full house requiring more volume than a small audience.

The pipe organ will be used for short reel features such as news reels.

Soviet and Chinese Envoys Hold Conferences in Paris With French Foreign Minister Briand

Soviet Russian troops, according to wholly unconfirmed press dispatches received in London this afternoon, have occupied the frontier towns of Manchuli (Manchuria) and Pogranichnaya on the Manchurian side of the Siberian-Manchurian border. The Chinese were reported to have destroyed tunnels on the Chinese Eastern Railroad near Pogranichnaya.

By International News Service
Despite vigorous war preparations by both Soviet Russia and China, dispatches to International News Service from Moscow and Peiping reported the belief today that actual hostilities would be averted.

The Soviet and Chinese diplomatic envoys to France held conferences in Paris with French Foreign Minister Briand, one of the most powerful figures in the League of Nations.

For the second time in less than 30 hours an unconfirmed report was received from China of a clash between Soviet Russian and Chinese troops on the Amur River, on the northern frontier of Manchuria. This latest unconfirmed dispatch, which was received from Shanghai quoted "private advices" as saying the Russians tried to cross the river at Blagoveshchensk, but retired when fired upon by Chinese, and forced to retire.

Soviet Russia is reported to be making demonstrations with military airplanes along the Manchurian-Siberian borders.

Massing of troops at strategic points by both Soviet Russia and China continue, according to International News Service reports out of Manchurian centers.

Martial law has been declared at Harbin, Manchuria.

PETITION ASKS A RECEIVER FOR LIGHT COMPANY

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—Petition for a receiver for the Evans Electric Company and the Suburban Light and Power Company was filed yesterday in Marion Probate court.

Hearing on the petition will be heard by Judge Mahlon E. Bash at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The action was instituted by John McGrath, a lineman for the power company, who alleges the firm is indebted to him in the sum of $155.93 and is in danger of losing its franchise by the public service commission.

Norman G. Evans, head of the independent electric firm has been cited by the public service commission to appear July 22, to show cause why his certificate of convenience and necessity should not be revoked. Complaint had been made to the commission regarding this service.

McGrath's petition alleges that a power transmission line known as the Putnamville line, had been conveyed to the Evans Electric Company by the Suburban Light and Power Company, and that the conveyance was null and void because it contained no consideration. The firm is in danger of insolvency and unless a receiver is appointed before the hearing before the public service commission, the commission will forfeit the certificate held by Evans the petition asserts.

Offices of the electric company are at 146 Kentucky avenue.

James Heavin, in his Nash Special pushed by Edward Taylor, won first prize in the Veterans of Foreign Wars pushmobile race Thursday evening, held as an added feature of the band concert night program. "Jimmie" was awarded a cash prize of $2 by the Veterans and a fountain pen by Ed. Hamilton.

Hiram Callender, Jr., in his Nash Special pushed by Eugene Callender, won second prize, and was awarded a cash prize of $1.50 by the Veterans and a pocket knife by Browning & Hammond.

Third prize went to Bernard Foulkerson in his Standard Oil Special pushed by Eugene Foulkerson. Foulkerson won a cash prize of $1 from the Veterans and a flashlight from the Fleenor Drug Store.

Ted Stone in his "Spirit of '95" won fourth prize and was given a Kodak by R. P. Mullins.

Bernard Foulkerson won an additional prize of $1 for the best looking car. His car was built by himself and his brother without any outside help and was a good-looking job.

Excitement galore marked the preliminary race and the final race. In the preliminary race the car driven by James Heavin finished first; Hiram Callender, second; Bernard Foulkerson, third, and Ted Stone lost his engine in the first block of the race. Heavin's pusher damaged his trousers when he tripped at the finish line and caught his clothing on the Callender car. Another car lost a wheel and finished on three wheels.

Three boys who had built cars contracted stage fright at the last minute and withdrew their mounts before the races started. A large crowd lined the course on Jackson street to see the first race of this kind ever held. It is believed that if the races are continued they will attract still better crowds.

CARS CRASH AT BRIDGE

Cars occupied by Dora Oler and Ora Todd and wife and daughter, all of Maple avenue, Greencastle, and by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gorton and daughter of Greencastle township, collided on the grade leading to the Pinhook bridge, northeast of Greencastle, about 7:30 o'clock last night, with injury to several occupants of the cars. Both autos were badly damaged.

It was said Oler, driving a Buick touring car, was going up the grade to the bridge, while Gorton was going down the grade. Lack of room for the two cars to pass, resulted in the collision.

Mrs. Todd is said to have suffered an injured ankle while the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gorton was taken to a doctor in Greencastle for treatment.

Sheriff Edward Eiteljorge was called to investigate the crash.

BOOTLEGGERS LATEST RELEASE

Good Government in Indiana Has Received Setback, Says Bankers' Association Head

RICHMOND, Ind., July 19.—

(INS)—The storm of protest aroused here by Governor Harry G. Leslie's recent paroles grew today with issuance of a statement by A. G. Brown, of Greencastle, president of the Indiana Bankers' Association, and the discovery that a well known Cambridge City, Ind., bootlegger, Jesse Richardson, who is supposed to be serving a State Prison sentence, was mysteriously at liberty here recently to solicit aid in obtaining clemency.

The Bankers' Association president denounced vigorously the recent action of the board of trustees of the State Reformatory and Governor Leslie in paroling John Pritchard and Carl Roberts, discharged Fort Wayne policemen, who had served less than one-half of the minimum of a 10-to-21-year sentence for robbing a bank at Hagerstown in 1924.

Mr. Brown in a statement said "In the parole of John Pritchard and Carl Roberts good government in Indiana has received a setback. The Indiana Bankers' Association is sorry indeed to see the efforts of its members go for naught. Both these men were potential murderers and are now a menace to society. If Indiana is going to keep crime down to the minimum its citizens must demand that the sentences of courts be upheld and at least minimum sentences be served."

Richardson had served only a few months of a 1 to 3 year term for bootlegging when he was seen back in his old haunts by George R. Jeffrey, Federal district attorney.

Jeffrey said he had flatly refused to indorse clemency for Richardson, who, he said, had told him he was "released for a few days." It was learned that Jeffrey communicated with Circuit Judge J. R. Hinshaw of Henry County and that officials there sent a message of protest to Governor Leslie, outlining Richardson's record and advising against clemency.

Richardson has served a sentence at the State Penal Farm and a jail sentence imposed by Federal Court for liquor offenses. He was arrested by Federal officials while a Henry County Circuit court conviction was pending on appeal to the State Supreme Court, which later upheld the lower court.

There was some speculation among law enforcement officials here as to the effect of Gov. Harry G. Leslie's paroles on the conference which he was called to consider law enforcement. Two Wayne county men were appointed on the Indiana crime commission by Governor Leslie, Denver C. Harlan of this city, president pro tem of the Senate and John M. Knapp of Hagerstown, speaker of the House in the last Legislature.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., July 19.—

(INS)—Fuel was added here today to the storm of protest already rising in Indiana against recent paroles granted by Governor Harry G. Leslie when local police revealed that John "Red" Hartman and Harold Jorgenson, recently paroled by the governor had served less than four years of 10 to 25 year sentences imposed on them for auto banditry.

Jorgenson was sentenced to the reformatory in October, 1925 and Hartman received the same sentence were members of gang of high school bandits who had a long police record here.

The fact that both paroled men had previously served reformatory sentences has caused considerable resentment and criticism here.

Vehicles figuring in the collision were a Victory Six Dodge sedan driven by Mrs. Lela Fellows of St. Louis; an A. C. Trucking Co. truck driven by Earl Smith of Indianapolis, and a Packard Sedan driven by R. M. Brown of Modesto, Cal.

It was said that the truck and the Packard first collided with minor damage and that while they were still parked on the pavement the Dodge sped over an incline and crashed into the parked truck on the pavement.

Although all three vehicles were damaged, a woman in the Brown sedan was the only person hurt. She suffered minor injuries about the head.

The accident was reported to Sheriff Edward Eiteljorge.

STATE POLICE BEGIN CHECK FOR PERJURY

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—(INS)—State policemen will begin a check at once of automobile drivers' licenses issued to determine whether perjury has been committed, Robert Humes, chief of State police, announced here.

The campaign will be aimed chiefly at persons who have failed to answer truthfully a question on the license asking whether the applicant ever has been convicted of a felony. Applications of known law violators will be scanned first. Charges of perjury will be filed and licenses will be revoked in all cases of failure to tell the truth, according to Humes.

Police yesterday arrested Theodore M. Engle, of Indianapolis, on a perjury charge after he was alleged to have specified a fictitious address on his license application.

Prepare for Chills, Thrills In
"Satan," New Mystery Film
Those who visit the Voncastle Theatre where "Seven Footprints to Satan" will be shown Saturday, will do well to prepare for a lot of chills and thrills. For this new First National picture has more than the ordinary amount of creepiness. It was directed by the past master of mystery films, Benjamin Christensen, and embodies a story that is at once original and tremendously exciting.

It is the story (by A. Merritt) of a young couple who are kidnaped and taken to a strange mansion inhabited by a queer character known as "Satan." He is surrounded by a number of weird and grotesque figures such as the spider, a dwarf, a witch and what not, and the things that occur in this place startle the most blasé of film patrons.

Thelma Todd and Creighton Hale have the leads, with Sheldon Lewis, Wm. V. Mong, Sojin and others in heavy roles.

CHICAGO, July 18.—(INS)—The first rum-running vessel ever seized in the Chicago Harbor is being held today by coast guardsmen and prohibition agents.

The government men confiscated the boat, a truck which was being loaded with the contraband and 325 cases of the beer. The truck driver and a single member of the crew, who had failed to join his fellows in flight as the Federal agents appeared, are under arrest.

PASSES OFF CIGAR COUPON FOR NEW FIVE DOLLAR BILL

INDIANAPOLIS, July 18.—(INS)—Police today were searching for a slick swindler who palmed off a cigar coupon for one of the new $5.00 bills on Edward Lee, 13, a delivery boy for a local drug store.

The man telephoned the store asking for the delivery of a quart of ice cream with change for five dollars. He met the delivery boy in the street, took the ice cream and the change, gave the boy the cigar coupon, and a 25 cent tip.

"Here's one of the new fives," the man said as he handed the folded coupon to the boy and hurried off.

FOUR BICYCLISTS SEEK NEW ENDURANCE MARK

EDINBURG, Ind., July 18.—(INS)—The endurance contest craze has reached this staid, little Hoosier community.

Four local youths today were engaged in establishing a world's bicycle riding endurance record. At 11 a. m. today the four youngsters had passed the 53rd hour and were still going strong.

The marathoning pedalists were Boyd and Harold Gill, Junior Mills and Allen Martin.

The boys ride an hour each and then relieve each other. Thus each boy has three hours of rest for every hour he rides. The bicycle is kept going even when the rider is changed as the old rider gets off on one side while the relief rider mounts from the other side.

The bicycle contest started at 6 a. m. last Tuesday. The local youths already have exceeded by 23 hours the record established by some boys at Franklin last week.

The bicycle is kept going over the streets of Edinburg day and night, rain and shine.

The contest has created much interest here and there has been some brisk betting on the lads. The riders rest on cots placed on the porch of the Gill home.

CROSS COUNTRY AIR SLEEPER IN ONE DAY TRIPS

By FRANCIS F. HEALY
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—Herbert Hoover, Jr., son of the president, launching a career for himself as Radio Engineer of the Western Air Express, recent visitor in Chicago, predicted that within the next year a 24-hour sleeper transcontinental air service would be inaugurated.

Young Hoover said he believed telephone facilities for communication between planes and ground stations would be completed by that time, enabling business men to make connections with their offices. He said such a service would aid pilots in learning of weather conditions ahead and would avert many air problems now experienced by pilots.

Night Flying

Plans are already being designed for night flights with all the comforts of present day Pullman cars, he said. These planes are to be adequate for from 20 to 40 passengers and are contemplated for service between middlewestern points such as Chicago to Kansas City and the West.

The present air-mail services must be speeded up to keep pace with the growing interest and patronage of transcontinental passengers, he declared.

"The time is not far distant when a 24-hour service between New York and Los Angeles, with passengers comfortably enjoying a good night's sleep while the plane covers the distance between Kansas City and Los Angeles and other coastal cities, will be a regular thing in my opinion," he said.

Phone Service

"The development of telephone communications between planes and land stations is progressing so rapidly that it won't be long before passengers can keep in constant touch with their friends and business associates while making transcontinental flights."

Young Hoover was in Chicago with Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, famous world war ace, now representing the Fokker-General Motors Company. Rickenbacker also was extremely optimistic regarding the future possibilities of aviation.

SIX MEN STILL IN HOSPITAL FOLLOWING TERRIFIC BLAST IN PENNSYLVANIA POWDER PLANT OF THE LOGAN FERRY WORKS

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., July 19.—(INS)—Five employees of the United States Aluminum Company died in the hospital here today, bringing the death toll to seven in a terrific explosion which shattered the powder plant of the Logan Ferry Works. The company is a subsidiary of the Aluminum Company of America.

Two of the men in the plant were killed instantly. Six men still were in the hospital, one of them in a critical condition.

J. I. Paustenbach, of Tarentum, night foreman, and Andrew Kautzman, east Kensington, were killed. Those who died today were B. Lopez, G. Gallardo, G. Giansanti, J. Laros and M. Mazimanolis.

The force of the blast rocked New Kensington and the surrounding country. The dead and injured were quickly dug from the wreckage. It is believed all have been accounted for.

Aluminum bronze powder, used in the manufacture of paint and highly explosive, is believed to have been set off by an overheated belt.

Hurled about by the force of the detonation, the fifteen men working in the plant were battered, burned and bruised in the falling debris.

DEPAUW AND NURSES SCHOOL
OFFER COURSE

RECIPROCAL ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN UNIVERSITY AND METHODIST HOSPITAL TRAINING SCHOOL EFFECTIVE THIS FALL—ONE LOCAL STUDENT TO ENROLL

A reciprocal arrangement between DePauw university and the Methodist hospital training school for nurses, whereby students may receive diplomas from both institutions which was worked out nearly two years ago, will go into effect this fall. Miss Frances S. MacMillan, superintendent of the training school announced last night.

Terms of the arrangements were announced in 1927, but operation of the plan was delayed until it was made legal by a bill enacted by the last session of the General Assembly.

Operation of the plan also required the sanction of the Indiana state board of nurses' examiners, which now has been obtained.

Approval also has been granted by the board of trustees of both DePauw and the Methodist hospital.

Under the plan, students will spend three school years or six semesters at DePauw in premedical work upon completion of which they will come to the Methodist hospital training school for a period of two years and four months. Upon successful completion of the combined courses students will receive a bachelor of arts degree from the university and a diploma from the training school.

Names of 103 students who have been accepted as probationers for the fall term of the training school also were made public last night by Miss MacMillan. During the probation period theoretical and practical instruction is given. If the student shows general aptitude for nursing, good health and the ability to keep up with the class instructions, she is accepted.

Among the Hoosier students who will enter the nurses training school September 3 is Miss Mary Louise Harris of Greencastle.

FIFTY YEARS OF
ELECTRIC LIGHT
IS CELEBRATED

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 19.—The fiftieth anniversary of artificial sunshine is being celebrated throughout the country.

It was in 1880, following the perfection of his incandescent lamp, that Thomas Edison organized in New York City the first central station for distributing electric lighting. It was the first glow from which developed the romantic White Light district of Broadway and later to light up the civilized world.

When Edison struck his first spark, it was a city of gaslight, candles, lamplights and sputtering arc lights. The hotels (which were not the modern skyscraper, hostelryes) still displayed signs in their rooms "Don't blow out the gas."

Edison tells of his experiences in picking out his pioneer electric station.

"While planning for my first New York station in Pearl Street," he said, "I had no real estate and little knowledge of its cost in New York. I thought that by going down on a slum street near the waterfront, I could get some pretty cheap property. So I picked out the worst, dilapidated street there and found I could only get two buildings."

"I thought about $10,000 each would cover it but when I got the price I found that they wanted $75,000 for one and $80,000 for the other. Then I was compelled to change my plans and go upward in the air where real estate was cheap. So I cleared out my building entirely to the walls and built my station of structural ironwork, running it up high."

The new station was to serve the financial and commercial district—about a mile square—between Wall Nassau, Spence and Ferry Streets, Peck Slip and the East River. Edison ordered a thorough canvas of potential customers and before his station was opened he knew the exact number of gas jets in every building, how many hours they burned and the cost. He knew every consumer of power and just how much was used.

The inventor constructed an underground system. He worked day and night with the energy for which he is famous. Sleep was almost entirely neglected. Occasionally, he snatched a nap in the cellar, lying on the iron conductor pipes stored there. Although Edison suffered no ill effects, two workmen died of diphtheria contracted in the cold, damp place.

The official opening occurred on September 4, 1882. Steam was admitted to the engine of one Jumbo generator, named after Barnum's popular elephant. The current was generated, turned into the thirteen miles of underground conductors and the electric light system was begun which was to revolutionize the world.

At the end of the first month, the Pearl Street station had 59 customers. By the first year, the number had reached 445. Light was supplied free for three months while the meter system was thoroughly tested.

The firm of J. P. Morgan, bankers, was among the first customers. Morgan doubted the accuracy of the meter. Edison suggested cards be hung on each fixture and a record kept of the number of lights and the time they were turned on and off. Morgan did that and still kicked at the bills. Edison made a personal investigation. He found that the lights used by the janitor had escaped notation. The next month's bills tallied the record kept with the meter charge. Morgan was satisfied and Edison was vindicated.

MADE CHECK GOOD

Fred Babbs, Stilesville, who was arrested last week on a charge of issuing a check without sufficient funds in the bank, was released on his own recognizance, Monday, after paying the amount of the check, $12.50 and the court costs amounting to $20.05. The bogus check was given to Mrs. Addie Robards of Stilesville in payment of rent.—Danville Gazette.
